

I am very much opposed to any proposal which would allow a greater concentration of media ownership than already exists. The existence of a free, independent press is vital to a democracy. Please do not allow the print and broadcast media ownership to be concentrated in the hands of a few powerful entities.